Location

EuroHPC User Days 2026 will take place in Dublin.

Meeting Venue

The working sessions will be hosted in Clayton Hotel Burlington Road, Leeson Street Upper, Dublin, D04 A318.

Social Event (Guinness Storehouse)

On the evening of 23 September 2026, participants of the EuroHPC User Days are invited to a social event at the Guinness Storehouse, St. James's Gate, Dublin 8, D08 VF8H, Ireland.

The social event, which will start at 19:30 until 22:00, will provide an opportunity for participants to network, exchange experiences and foster new connections and synergies among European supercomputing users, while also offering a unique showcase of Irish culture, heritage and traditions.

Food and drinks will be served during the evening, creating a relaxed setting for informal networking and socialising.

Programme

This preliminary programme is subject to change. The final programme will be shared with registered delegation members via the Accreditation Platform in advance of the meeting.

Registration and accreditation

For security reasons, each participant must be registered and accredited in order to gain access to the meeting venue and official Welcome Reception.

In order to attend the meeting, you must register individually on the Accreditation Platform, using your own credentials at: <https://participant.ireland2026.eu/secured/login/EU26FHE005>

Please note that in compliance with data security requirements, the Accreditation Platform requires Two-Factor Authentication. You will require access to an authenticator application such as Microsoft Authenticator or Google Authenticator in order to access the Accreditation Platform.

To facilitate the smooth running of the programme, please ensure that you have registered and that all requested information has been provided, including dietary and accessibility requirements of delegates, by the registration deadline of 11 September 2026. Please ensure that all details are completed correctly before submitting the registration request, as certain information (for example, your name) will be printed on your accreditation badge.

All personal information provided for accreditation will be processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Full details can be found in the Privacy Notice on the Accreditation Platform.

If you have any queries about the registration process, please email eurohpc_eu26@dfheris.gov.ie

Accreditation badges

Accreditation badges will be available for collection at the Clayton Hotel Burlington Road from 14:00 to 20:00 on Monday, 21 September. To minimise delays on the opening day of the conference, attendees are strongly encouraged, where possible, to collect their badges in advance on Monday, 21 September.

Badges may also be collected on arrival at the venue from 7:00am on Tuesday, 22 September, and throughout the duration of the conference for late arrivals. Attendees intending to collect their badge on Tuesday morning are advised to arrive in good time to allow for registration prior to the commencement of proceedings.

Delegates will be requested to provide a photo I.D. document when collecting their badge. Delegate badges are strictly personal and non-transferable, and must be visible at all times within the meeting venue and at all events within the meeting programme.

If you lose your accreditation badge, please immediately notify your meeting host. Please also notify the accreditation team by sending an email to EUPresidency.accreditation@dfa.ie

Interpretation

This meeting will be conducted through English. Simultaneous interpretation will not be provided.

Transport

Entering Ireland

Please note that Ireland is not part of the Schengen Area. Therefore, EU citizens must present a valid passport or national identity card to enter Ireland. Full details are available here.

Citizens of other countries must present a valid passport or recognised travel document to enter Ireland, and may also need a visa. You can find out if you need a visa to enter Ireland here.

Transport options

Delegates are invited to make their own travel arrangements for transfer to and from the airport. Information on public transport and taxi options to and from Dublin Airport are available here.

In line with the Irish EU Presidency's sustainability policy, delegates are encouraged to arrive at the meeting venue and other programme elements on foot or by public transport. Information about public transport options can be found at the Links of Interest section below.

Accommodation

A block of rooms has been reserved at discounted rates for guests attending the EuroHPC User Days Conference. To benefit from these special rates, please book your accommodation using the following link: <https://bookings.claytonhotels.com/offer/burlington-road/EuroHPC-conference>

The rates for delegates are below:

- €239.00 Single Occupancy for bed and breakfast, per room, per night
- €259.00 Double Occupancy for bed and breakfast, per room, per night

Alternatively, the Accreditation Platform includes a link to the Irish EU Presidency accommodation booking platform, where you will find a list of hotels with availability for the dates of the meeting. By booking through this platform, you will be able to avail of the Irish EU Presidency room rate. You are encouraged to book your room as soon as possible, to ensure availability.

Security

The Irish Presidency will ensure security during the meeting in close cooperation with An Garda Síochána, Ireland's national police and security service.

Media

Media representatives are welcome to apply for accreditation to attend the User Days event. The media accreditation portal is available here.

General Information

Useful contacts

For general queries relating to the meeting logistics or content: userday@eurohpc-ju.europa.eu

For queries related to accreditation: eurohpc_eu26@dfheris.gov.ie

Emergency services (police, ambulance, fire): 112 or 999

Internet/WiFi

Wireless internet access is available throughout the meeting venue. The network name and password will be available on signage in the venue.

Electricity

The standard electricity supply in Ireland is 230V at a frequency of 50Hz (the same as in other EU Member States). Three-pin power plugs and sockets of Type G are used. Delegates travelling from EU Member States will require a power plug adaptor in order to use electronic devices safely in Ireland.

First Aid and Medical Assistance

There will be first aid kits and staff trained in administering first aid stationed at the venue during the event. If you require medical assistance during the event, please alert a member of conference staff.

Accessibility

At the time of accreditation, the platform will ask for relevant information on allergies, dietary restrictions and dietary preferences, and invite sharing of any meeting-related accessibility requirements. It is important that this information is provided so that delegates may receive all appropriate supports.

Lost and Found

If you have lost or found an item in the meeting venue, please bring it to the attention of your meeting host. Please note that the Irish EU Presidency is not liable for personal injuries, losses or damage to the personal property of registered delegates. All delegates should make their own arrangements with respect to personal insurance for their property.

Weather

Temperatures in Dublin in late September typically range between 9°C and 16°C. Rain can be expected at any time of year.

Irish Presidency Sustainability Plan

The Irish Presidency of the Council of the European Union provides a significant opportunity to demonstrate Ireland's commitment to sustainability and environmental responsibility. Ireland is committed to embedding sustainable practices across all aspects of planning and delivery of our EU Presidency.

To reaffirm our commitment, Ireland has developed a Sustainability Policy for our EU Presidency, applying it directly to official EU Presidency meetings and events held in Ireland. The objective of the policy is to support the organisation and delivery of EU Presidency meetings as sustainably as possible. We wish to encourage the implementation of initiatives that are environmentally, socially and economically responsible throughout the organisation and delivery stages.

We hope that our efforts will be visible across our meetings and events and that you will be inspired to continue making sustainable and environmentally conscious choices. More information about the Sustainability Policy will be available on the official website of the Irish Presidency of the Council of the European Union.
